They throw the switch and, again, nothing happens. Again, they all immediately fall to their knees; beg for his forgiveness, and release him.

The last one, Ole, is strapped in and says, "Vell, I'm from the University of Wisconsin and just graduated with a degree in Electrical Engineering, and I'll tell ya right now, ya ain't gonna electrocute nobody if you don't plug this thing in!"

had been in the possession of Dennis Galt . . . he who was a fourth grade student watching the Corsair on the day it slammed into the earth . . . and he, the inquisitive witness who was determined to restore the medal and any other memorabilia to Wilson's family, should they want it.

Well, thanks to Dennis Galt, Dusty now has the long missing St. Christopher's medal.

From Dennis Galt:

"Lyle, we (my wife, Natali & I) picked up Lavina Ward Saturday (August 4th) at the Hyatt downtown after she had flown in from Sacramento. We had brought a big bouquet of dahlias from our garden and we took them to Beau's headstone at Fort Rosecrans Cemetery. We then drove her to Valley Center and showed her the elementary school where I and my classmates witnessed the accident. Then we drove her to the crash site and showed her where the medal was found.

We drove back to San Diego and had a very nice early dinner with her at the Hotel Del. She was so grateful to get the medal and hear the story about all of it first hand. I gave her the Navy copy of the accident report which I had also got, through the Freedom of Information Act. I also had photo copies of the newspaper articles from Escondido and San Diego, which she had refused to read when the accident took his life that November day in 1951. She mentioned that his mother had given that medal to him and he would never take it off his neck as he cherished it so much."

Today, Dennis Galt, though raised in Valley Center, lives in Escondido. He is employed at Grangetto's where he has served North County for 30 years.

The highlight on Saturday, August 25, will be a Mexican dance from 8:00pm-11:00pm hosted by the Minister of Couples (Ministerio de Matrimonios) featuring the band Arranque Norteno. On Sunday, the Order Sons of Italy in America will serve Italian food – sausage sandwiches and a pasta dinner. The weekend will be capped on Sunday night when a winner will be announced for the $10,000 raffle grand prize.

Admission to the Fiesta is FREE. There is a fee of $7/adults and $4/children for the Sock Hop. The Mexican dance is $15/couple or $10/single. Proceeds from the fiesta go to reduce the building debt.

The Fiesta will host a Trash & Treasures sale, including plants. Mexican food, Western BBQ, hamburgers, hot dogs, pizza, desserts, soft drinks, and bottled water will be available for purchase, with a beer and wine garden for the adults.

Another Vote for the PETA Article.

My hat is off to Lyle Davis for his article, "Terrorists Among Us, 2 faces of PETA"! It is about time that the real story comes out about these people!

They have lied to too many people, and the ones suffering for it all are the innocent animals they profess to care so deeply about ... the ones they are murdering without a second thought.

People need to finally wake up to these people's real intentions and stop supporting them in their terroristic, UNLAWFUL actions!
