Carlsbad Sinkhole On Target for Repair

With an estimated $625,000 committed to solve the problem, Carlsbad city officials say they believe the huge sinkhole along Tamarack Avenue may be completely repaired by early March.

The giant hole in the ground was discovered by city employees on January 7th after a city alarm system announced that a water line was suddenly losing pressure. Upon arrival inspectors found an access road into the Calavera Hills RV storage area and part of the surrounding hillside had collapsed into a stream channel some 50 feet below.

The RV storage area is home to about 180 motor homes and a live-in caretaker. Initially, vehicles couldn't leave the facility, but the city has built a temporary road extension to allow vehicles into the storage area as construction work continues.

The Angel's Depot Launches Soup Month Drive

Angel's Depot, an organization that provides Emergency 21-Meal Boxes free to senior citizens living in poverty in San Diego County has launched a soup drive for the month of February. Area residents are asked to donate cans of soup to help in this drive. Each food box will receive four cans of soup.

For further information, contact The Angel's Depot at 760.599.7093 or go to their website:

www.theangelsdepot.org.

The Pet Parade

Buy or sell your favorite pets and/or pet supplies here. In order to discourage Puppy Mills we do NOT accept ads for animals from out of state. This is a resource for making pets available to good homes. We ask our sellers to thoroughly screen their buyers to ensure they find good homes.

years of her weekly reports have been saved and, hopefully, will one day be published as a book.

In the meantime, she needs our help.

Some of you may be inclined to answer a similar call and volunteer for service in Uzbekistan. Others may want to help by whipping out your checkbook and writing a check to help this young lady and her 'kids.'

begins; the reminder that we are not, of ourselves, ever good enough, the reminder that He uses what others would disregard, the reminder that, through it all, He actually wants an intimate relationship with us and the reminder that pain is part of it all. Pain causes change. It's not easy. So, when I start patting myself on the back, for helping a child use a spoon, or learn to walk or kick a ball, let me be reminded that I am just as frail, just as hindered and it is only by the grace of God that I can be where I am doing what I do. It's not an adventure, it's a Calling. Fool for Christ, Desiree'

And so, there we are. The beginnings of a story that Desiree has pursued as a calling she has responded to, in spite of her own physical ailments.

She is doing a job that most of us would not be capable of doing . . . and she is living from month to month.

You'll be able to monitor the latest from Uzbekistan every week as we begin publishing Desiree's Diary every week. There is a great deal of material to share with you. Over seven I've checked it out. It is, in fact, a bona fide 501(c)3 organization so any funds you donate are tax deductible.

While you are thinking of it, why not write out a check now?

And be generous. Send it to:
