Theodore Roosevelt's ideas on Immigrants and being an AMERICAN in 1907.

'In the first place, we should insist that if the immigrant who comes here in good faith becomes an American and assimilates himself to us, he shall be treated on an exact equality with everyone else, for it is an outrage to discriminate against any such man because of creed, or birthplace, or origin.

But this is predicated upon the person's becoming in every facet an American and nothing but an American ... There can be no divided allegiance here. Any man who says he is an American, but something else also, isn't an American at all. We have room for but one flag, the American flag ... We have room for but one language here, and that is the English language ... and we have room for but one sole loyalty and that is a loyalty to the American people.'

email lists with whom I exchange emails. I wish all of them would follow your advice. Unfortunately, a number of them don't.

Letters to the Editor are always welcome. We prefer them via email. Send them to: thepaper@cox.net

Please keep to 250 words or less. No personal attacks, only a discussion of issues. We don't like to get our attorneys nervous. They bill more by the hour when they're nervous.
