There are about 1,100 classified employees in the district. Many otherwise vacant positions, about 80, have remained unfilled.

The school board decided not to lay off any permanent teachers, although nearly 100 temporary teachers have been notified they may not be asked back next school year. The district also will close Vista Focus Academy, a high school prep program for ninth-graders not yet ready for high school, at the end of the school year.

Teachers, EUSD Contract Dispute Over

Medical benefits, the primary hangup in a contract dispute between the teachers union and the Escondido Union School has been resolved, according to spokespersons for both sides.

Teachers had been asked to pay $260 a month for one of two medical plans, a proposal that left the two sides at an impasse for five months. The teachers had been paying nothing on premiums. Under the agreement, recently ratified by the teacher's union, the monthly premium has been lowered to $213, which starts in January.

Teachers in the district have a choice between a PPO and a health maintenance organization (HMO) plan through Kaiser Permanente. The HMO will be fully covered by the district's cap, and teachers will not have to pay premiums under that plan.

Call To Action is Literal. Carlsbad Councilmember Calls Constituents

Carlsbad Councilmember Keith Blackburn found that his idea of using an automated dialing service to urge thousands of Carlsbad residents to attend an upcoming City Council meeting, was, perhaps, not the best decision he'd ever made.

His constituents let him know they weren't happy about being called by an automated dialing service that Blackburn had paid to make Sunday afternoon calls.

"The intent was to be informational, not annoying," Blackburn said Monday.

The 30-second recorded message, which was scheduled to go to 30,000 phone customers, encouraged residents to attend this week's specialists in corporate relocation --- I was told that even a good-sized hospital like Palomar could get a quote within 24 hours.)

The fact that UCLA spent $25 million moving into a new facility last year doesn't calm my sense that nobody at Palomar Pomerado gives a darn about the taxpayers' money. UCLA is also a public hospital. Show me a private-sector hospital that drops $30 million on moving and staff orientation expenses (and another $1 million on planning the move) and I'll eat my words.

Tuesday night council meeting. The subject of the phone call was the Alga Norte Park project, the long-debated construction project proposed to go on a 32-acre site on Poinsettia Lane east of El Camino Real.

Automated calling has been used in previous city election campaigns, but not at other times. Councilwoman Ann Kulchin, who has been a strong backer of the Alga Norte project, said Monday that she thinks Blackburn's approach to letting people know about Tuesday's meeting was innovative.

Blackburn paid for the automated service himself. Blackburn said he'd have to think long and hard before opting to use the service again. He estimated that the calling effort cost him about $2,000, and said it was a learning experience.

as big as a chipmunk head and don't move, and it ain't shooting at you like the Higgett boys at home. All you got to do is lie there all comfortable and hit it. You don't even load your own cartridges They come in boxes.

Then we have what they call hand-to-hand combat training. You get to wrestle with them city boys. I have to be real careful though, they break real easy. It ain't like fighting with that ole bull at home. I'm about the best they got in this except for that Tug Jordan from over in Silver Lake. I only beat him once. He joined up the same time as me, but I'm only 5'6" and 130 pounds and he's 6' 8" and near 300 pounds dry.

Be sure to tell Walt and Elmer to hurry and join before other fellers get onto this setup and come stampeding in.
