*To read or not to read: that is the question.
Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The slings and arrows of outrageous fortune,
Or to take arms against a sea of troubles.*

*To sleep: perchance to dream: ay, there's the rub;
For in that sleep of death what dreams may come
When we have shuffled off this mortal coil,
Must give us pause: there's the respect*

*Thus conscience does make cowards of us all;
But give me my Paper
and I shall read . . .
for 'tis timely . . . and I shall flee to where the mind doth travel and rest. That quiet rest that seeks us all.*

'Tis a goodly Paper, that I read it often and I learn to write.
