Allen Brothers The Value of the Funeral

Acknowledges that a life has been lived.

Allows people to remember and honor their loved one in a special way.

Serves as a central gathering place for family and friends to give emotional and physical support to one another.

Provides the final closure for the bereaved.

Initiates the grieving process.

Encourages mourners to face the pain of their loss and express their thoughts and feelings.

Helps survivors to better cope with their grief and enables them to move forward with their lives.

WE SALUTE OUR COMMUNITY

Theodore Roosevelt's ideas on Immigrants and being an AMERICAN in 1907.

'In the first place, we should insist that if the immigrant who comes here in good faith becomes an American and assimilates himself to us, he shall be treated on an exact equality with everyone else, for it is an outrage to discriminate against any such man because of creed, or birthplace, or origin.

But this is predicated upon the person's becoming in every facet an American and nothing but an American ... There can be no divided allegiance here. Any man who says he is an American, but something else also, isn't an American at all. We have room for but one flag, the American flag ... We have room for but one language here, and that is the English language ... and we have room for but one sole loyalty and that is a loyalty to the American people.'

MEN WANTED FOR HAZARDOUS JOURNEY. LOW WAGES, BITTER COLD, LONG HOURS OF COMPLETE DARKNESS. SAFE RETURN DOUBTFUL. HONOUR AND RECOGNITION IN EVENT OF SUCCESS.

Ernest Shackleton, Antarctic explorer (1874-1922)

The advertisement above, placed in a London newspaper in 1912, inspired nearly 5,000 replies. Shouldn't you be advertising in The Paper, your local, community paper?
