'This is Alabama?'

Bon Appetit tour and see what the Birmingham area had to offer in the way of victuals and libations. They came away impressed.

Ozan Vineyard and Cellars has over 2000 vines planted at Ozan with plans for expansion. Lovely small winery with lovable owners. One frustration here is their peach wine, which is done perfectly and is to die for, is not able to be shipped to California by the winery.

From here, the tour went to the Vizzini Farms Winery. They make wines from the finest Alabama and West Coast Vinifera grapes. The owner, Frank Vizzini, gave a detailed description of how wine is made. Our traveling couple was so impressed with both the Chocolate-Raspberry Merlot, and the Black raspberry/Merlot (Paulina - named after Frank's mother) that they bought a case, half and half.

He said, "that free wine tasting stop
