Applebee's Restaurant Honors Military, Past and Present

In what most observers agreed was a class act, the Applebee's Restaurant chain nationwide honored military veterans both past and present on Veteran's

Elmer Sexton, proudly shows his discharge papers from the US Navy, having served from 1943 - 1945
He's from Hot Springs, Arkansas, now living in Escondido (since 1963)

Day with free meals. According to Lance Hannify, the Escondido Service Manager for Applebee's, the veterans had their choice from a special menu of steak or chicken, together with an entree size salad, hamburgers . . . anything they wanted from their own special menu.

With the value of the meals pegged at approximately $10, the Escondido Applebee's franchise alone gave away $9,000 worth of meals. Regionally, 111,000 meals were served, nationally, well over 1 million meals were served.

The Paper would like to both acknowledge and offer our hearty salute and congratulations for not only a brilliant public relations program, but an outstanding and unselfish way to honor not only today's active duty military but to all those who served.

We managed to take only three photos of very happy military veterans . . . but the entire restaurant was full of conviviality with plenty of good food.

As the say in the service . . . Well done!

'In the first place, we should insist that if the immigrant who comes here in good faith becomes an American and assimilates himself to us, he shall be treated on an exact equality with everyone else, for it is an outrage to discriminate against any such man because of creed, or birthplace, or origin.

But this is predicated upon the person's becoming in every facet an American and nothing but an American ... There can be no divided allegiance here. Any man who says he is an American, but something else also, isn't an American at all. We have room for but one flag, the American flag ... We have room for but one language here, and that is the English language ... and we have room for but one sole loyalty and that is a loyalty to the American people.'

MEN WANTED FOR HAZARDOUS JOURNEY. LOW WAGES, BITTER COLD, LONG HOURS OF COMPLETE DARKNESS. SAFE RETURN DOUBTFUL. HONOUR AND RECOGNITION IN EVENT OF SUCCESS.

Ernest Shackleton, Antarctic explorer (1874-1922)
