LSM Democratic Club Plans Holiday Party

The Lake San Marcos Democratic Club will have their annual Holiday Party on Saturday, December 12, at 11:30am at the current meeting venue. Check the website www.lsm.sddem.org for directions or call 760.752.1035 or email SOLSM12@aol.com. Key Democratic Party candidates running for 2010 elections have been invited. Food will be catered by Boston Market. Cost will be $20/person. You can bring your own wine if you so desire. Events Chair, Carole Hallam at 760.734.4125, (or buckner1@msn.com) is preparing for the party and needs your reservations early to help her plan the event.

"Joy! Joy! Joy!" is Theme for Christian Women's Club Luncheon

When the San Marcos-Vista Christian Women's Club meets for their luncheon on Monday, December 14, the theme of the meeting will be "Joy! Joy! Joy!" to celebrate the holiday season. The meeting will start at 11:30am at the Lake San Marcos Country Club, 1750 San Pablo Drive, San Marcos. The cost is $16/person inclusive. Guests are welcome.

The club has no membership or dues. All ladies are invited and encouraged to make reservations by Thursday, December 10, by calling Donna at 760.432.0772 or Muriel at 760.744.3744. The luncheon is sponsored by Stonecroft Ministries/Christian Women's Club. For information, check the website at www.stonecroft.org.

Christmas Gifts Available at Adobe Gift Shop

Want to avoid the malls this Christmas? Not sure what to buy friends and family? The Gift Shop at the Rancho Buena Vista Adobe is full of unique and unusual items for everyone on your gift list, from CD's to tableware, and a wide selection of inexpensive stocking stuffers. Gift Certificates are available also. The gift shop is located at 640 Alta Vista Dr., Vista, behind Wildwood Park. La Tiendita hours are Thursday through Saturday, 10am to 3pm.

And to get you in the Christmas spirit, from December 6-26, various Vista businesses have "decked the halls" of the entire Adobe for the Holiday Home Tour on December 6th. If you've never seen the breathtaking result of their efforts, now would be a good time to visit the Adobe as well as the Gift Shop. Docent led tours of the adobe are available Thursday through Saturday 10am to 3pm.

To join the Friends, sign up for docent training or be a gift shop volunteer, call 760.941.7639. The Rancho also provides the backdrop for parties, weddings and other special occasions. To learn more about this fascinating historical landmark, visit www.cityofvista.com; keyword search: Adobe.

Interfaith Plans Grand Opening of Home for Women

On Wednesday, December 9, "The Lois Wick Clausen Home for Women" will be dedicated and blessed in the faith tradition of Lois Wick Clausen, who always had a heart for helping people in need. She was a retired teacher and early Interfaith donor, who volunteered throughout the community and gave selflessly to others. Her final heroic gift is a duplex that she donated to Interfaith. This Home for Women will continue her legacy of caring for those who are in need by providing a home for two previously homeless families who have a disabled family member. Lois's generosity will live on to help others, year after year.

The event will be from 11:30am to 1pm, at 1434-1436 South Maple Street, Escondido. RSVP to Mary Ferro at 760.489.6380, Ext. 266.

of the home was outside in the yard. As the two thieves left the house, they were carrying a 48" television set. They noticed the home resident witnessing their action and one of the thieves pulled a knife.

The Sheriff's department reported that shortly after 9:30am Tuesday, in the 900 block of Osborne Street. The robbers are said to have left in a dark blue Suburban. At press time, deputies were still searching the area and interviewing the victim for more details.

Oceanside Sign Stealer Gets Slapped on the Wrist

In return for pleading guilty to a charge of receiving stolen property, the prosecutor dropped vandalism and petty theft charges.

The man, Eric M. Lebo, an Oceanside carpenter, was charged with stealing Oceanside election campaign signs. He said he was sorry and pleaded guilty in Vista Superior Court on Monday to the reduced charges.

Judge Marshall Hockett placed Lebo, 35, on three years' probation, fined $451 and ordered to complete an anger management class by March 30.

Lebo was arrested Wednesday after he was seen removing signs along Oceanside Boulevard that supported the recall of Oceanside City Councilman Jerry Kern and signs supporting the election of Charles "Chuck" Lowery as Kern's replacement.

The election is Dec. 8.

Lebo's lawyer, Deputy Public Defender William Matthews, told the judge "he thought they were eyesores more than anything else."
