WANTED

Seeking one investor capable of making a 'modest capital investment' to indulge an emerging North County manufacturing business. Stated simply, the economy has effectively thwarted all attempts at obtaining anything but nominal amounts of conventional credit and capital. The owners are a hands-on, father & son, there-is-no-pie-in-the-sky partnership, with the elder having over 30 years experience in professional practice, 20 of which self employed.

Simply, seeking a low-profile, low-pressure, wise/savvy investor type seeking something a bit more than just a specific return on their investment. The potential market for the subject products, which themselves are of the 'vehicle' variety, is more vast than could be satisfied by us times ten.

We are making this unconventional solicitation in hopes of lighting a fire under the right person. The total amount of capital requested would be less than $50k. If you're interested in any way, maybe simply discussing this bold plea further, you may reach us by e-mail at:
