

House of Origin: Lots of Paper, Few Results

By Senator Mark Wyland

This week the Legislature is scrambling to meet yet another Bill Factory deadline: "The House of Origin." One of several legislative deadlines, the House of Origin deadline requires lawmakers to vote on hundreds of bills a day, all of which stemmed from their particular house—thus the Senate will be churning out Senate bills to send over to the Assembly, and vice versa.

So while Rome is Burning in Sacramento, the Legislature is focusing on the "important" issues that face California, such as reducing the overcompensa-tion of sugar-sweetened beverages and declaring the Chinook salmon as the "official state anadromous fish." If you're anything like me, you've got to be thinking, "Give me a break!" But most of these measures, sadly, will be approved by the liberals who control the Legislature.

It's time we turn Sacramento around and focus on what is really important to Californians: creating jobs, balancing our budget and getting our economy back on track.

Senator Mark Wyland represents the people of the 38th Senate District, which includes cities in north San Diego County and the south Orange County cities of San Juan Capistrano.

Legislative Democrats are Willing to Throw Taxpayers and Kids Under the Bus

By Martin Garrick

As the budget debate heats up this summer, Democrats are taking political prisoners in order to get their way. They're willing to take working Californians hostage to protect government jobs and keep on spending.

Just this week, the former Assembly Democrat Majority Leader said he wants to delay the budget until kids go back to school in August. He wants to force middle-class families to call their legislators and ask "where's my son's [school] bus?" if Republicans won't vote to raise taxes.

This is absolutely irresponsible. Californians don't want to pay $6 billion dollars in higher taxes in these tough times. They want a balanced budget that protects their families' priorities.

Democrats are so determined to protect government jobs and programs that they are willing to throw taxpayers under the bus.

They're calling for a quote "complete closure of state government," if Republicans don't vote for a tax increase. Voters just last year rejected the same tax hikes that the Democrats are once again trying to force on working families. We won't let them hold our kids hostage in their negotiations for tax increases. Republicans will continue to fight for a responsible, balanced budget – with no new taxes.

'Chuckles' Cont. from Page 12

*At times I put something away
Where it is safe, but, Gee!
The person it is safest from
Is, generally, me!*

*When shopping I may see someone,
Say 'Hi' and have a chat,
Then, when the person walks away
I ask myself, 'who the hell was that?'*

*Yes, my forgetter's getting better
While my rememberer is broke,
And it's driving me plumb crazy
And that isn't any joke.*

You let your 14-year-old daughter smoke at the dinner table in front of her kids.

You think loading the dishwasher means getting your wife drunk.

You need one more hole punched in your card to get a freebie at the House of Tattoos.

You should refrain from talking to the characters on the screen. Tests have proven that they can't hear you.

Bar Mitzvah Definition

A Bar Mitzvah is defined as the day when a Jewish boy comes to the realization that he is more likely to own a professional sports team than he is to play for one.

We're getting so old that whenever we eat out, they ask for money up front.

We're getting so old we don't buy green bananas.

As a rule, I don't usually pass along these "add your name" lists that appear in emails because they are almost always bogus. BUT this one is important. It has been circulating for months and has been sent to over 20 million people.

We don't want to lose any names on the list so just add yours and then send it on. PLEASE keep it going!

1. To remove a bandage painlessly, saturate the bandage with vodka. The stuff dissolves adhesive.

2. To clean the caulking around bathtubs and showers, fill a trigger-spray bottle with vodka, spray the caulking, let set five minutes and wash clean. The alcohol in the vodka kills mold and mildew.

3. To clean your eyeglasses, simply wipe the lenses with a soft, clean cloth dampened with vodka. The alcohol in the vodka cleans the glass and kills germs.
